

Summer Food Service Program Information

Food That's In When School Is Out

The Summer Food Service Program is a terrific, FREE summer resource that is available to children and teens through age 18 in your area.

The Summer Food Service Program is a federally funded program administered by the Illinois State Board of Education that provides young people with the healthy food they enjoy during the school year. Children and teens who have access to nutritious meals throughout the summer return to school in the fall ready to learn.

Summer program sites are located throughout Chicago. No registration or identification is needed at many sites. Often, there are activities for the kids to participate in at the sites, making this a nutritious, safe, and fun way for children to spend the summer.
